1600 York St, Denver, CO 80206
http://www.empowermentprogram.org/

- How to Get In:
  - Sign up for Orientation by calling the number above, and pressing 3 for enrollment information.
  - Dial ext. 238 to speak with Laura about attending orientation.
  - Orientation is by appointment only – Wednesdays at 1:30pm
- All services listed are free and open to women enrolled in the program:
  - Criminal Justice Services
    - Project SUCCESS supports women who plead guilty or no contest to municipal charges, as they may come to Empowerment instead of a fine and/or jail sentence.
    - Outreach and diversion activities are provided in county jails to incarcerated women
    - Project Bedtime Story: the program provides weekly trips to Denver County Jails to record mothers as they read stories to their children. The CD and book are then sent to the child or children to enjoy over the sounds of their mother as they fall asleep.
  - Education
    - GED and Continuing Education: classes are provided for all women. One-to-one tutoring is available through volunteers.
    - Life Skills is a comprehensive group focusing on stress management, effective communication, problem solving, conflict resolution, time management, women’s health issues, bank and budgeting, support systems and goal setting.
  - Employment Services
    - Provide an opportunity to develop skills in completing job applications, the first impressions, and believing in oneself as well as developing interviewing skills and learning about job retention.
  - Health
    - Leadership Group: a peer run group, connected with Pathways to Success, which focuses on women’s issues.
    - Women’s AIDS Project: care and prevention services are provided for women who are living with HIV/AIDS or who are at risk for HIV infection. Comprehensive case management services are provided both for adults and teen women.
  - Housing
    - The program owns and operates five apartment buildings, providing supportive housing for homeless women living with chronic mental and/or physical disabilities.
    - Does not provide emergency housing
  - Integrated treatment services
    - Pathways to Success: uses a psychoeducational and skills building approach to increase women’s understanding of the associations among addiction, trauma, mental health disorders, sexual risk behaviors and financial stability.
    - Trauma Recovery and Empowerment Model (TREM): a group intervention designed to help women who have suffered from abuse and/or trauma. Emphasizes survivor empowerment and peer support, teaches techniques for self-soothing and recognizing social boundaries, and helps women learn to focus on manageable steps of problem solving.
- Mental Wellness: a psychoeducational group focusing on strength based learning. Discuss factors to help achieve healthier states of mind such as humor, exercise, self-appreciation, optimism and leisure activities.
- Chrysalis Project: provides services that include intensive outpatient substance abuse, cognitive-behavioral, mental health/trauma services to women arrested for prostitution in Denver.
- Beyond Violence – Anger Management: a course for women who have committed violent/aggressive offenses and/or experienced violence in their own life. Group focuses on developing ways to decrease aggression and learn new ways to manage emotions.
- Trauma Narrative: a writing and discussion group for women who have experienced trauma in their lives.
- Seeking Safety Group: present-focused therapy to help women attain safety from trauma/PTSD and substance abuse.
- Relapse Prevention: ongoing therapeutic support group that focuses on cognitive and behavioral skills to help promote sober living and provide support in recovery.
- Peer Educators: for women who have graduated from a TREM group and wanted to advance their learning of materials in a peer focused, hands-on environment.
- Dialectical Behavioral Therapy (DBT): consists of four modules: mindfulness, interpersonal effectiveness, emotion regulation, and distress tolerance.
