

Subsidized & Affordable Housing Resources for Low-Income Individuals

What is Subsidized Housing?

Subsidized housing provides assistance in the form of rental subsidies, limiting the monthly rent payment to no more than 30% of the recipient's adjustable gross income. The Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) pays the remainder to the landlord.

Site-based subsidies are attached to a particular apartment. Upon move out of the apartment, the assistance stays in place for the next participant. This is different than with a Section 8 voucher that you can transfer.

What is Affordable or Low Income Housing?

Affordable or Low Income Housing are programs that work to create affordable housing typically with lower than market rent rates. There are usually income limits to qualify.

Subsidized and Affordable Housing:

- Waiting Lists: In this market, most apartments have long waiting lists. As a result, you should apply to as many properties as you can.
- How to Apply: You will need to contact the apartments to determine if you qualify for income based rent. You can also find out which waiting lists are open, and how to apply, by calling each property directly.

For further information, you may call the Denver Regional HUD Office at 303-672-5236.
