Jefferson Center for Mental Health – all office locations

www.jcmh.org

- Jefferson Center for Mental Health offers services to uninsured individuals that may be available at a lower rate, depending on income through a variety of sources.
- OBH Indigent Funding requires proof of lawful presence in the US. If these are not provided, JCMH Indigent Funding will be used. Both allow for the client to apply for a sliding fee scale.
- Eligibility for reduced fees is based on income (see income guideline chart below).

Family Size	Maximum MONTHLY Income (gross)	Maximum ANNUAL Income (gross)
1	$3,912	$46,950
2	$5,287	$63,450
3	$6,662	$79,950
4	$8,037	$96,450
5	$9,412	$112,950
6	$10,787	$129,450

- Proof of income is required to qualify for services at a reduced fee.

Prior year income tax return	Wages/tips/salary documents (paystub or letter from employer)	SSDI: if in 2 year waiting period before Medicare (benefit letter, notice of award, or check stub)
Unemployment (check stub or award letter)	Workers Compensation (award letter or check stub)	Information from a designated community partner or CICP (copy of income verification provided to that agency)
Trust fund (letter from trustee or copy of check)	Self-Employment: if tax returns not filed (bank statements or business ledger)	Alimony (court decree, agreement, or copy of check)
Rental Income (copy of lease or copy of check)

For individuals without income, who cannot provide any of the above-listed verifications can qualify in the following way:*

- 1) Provide an ID (non-photo ok, including letter addressed to them, VA or student ID)
- 2) Provide a letter from a friend or family member attesting to the fact that they have no income.
