

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I sign up? Click here to schedule your monthly donation through ColoradoGives.org. It takes less than five minutes!

What is the deadline to sign up? The 2026 campaign ends March 1, but you may sign up or change your giving level at any time.

How will my donation be used? It's up to you! You may designate your donation to go to the program of your choice, to the endowment fund, or make a general donation that will be used where the need is greatest.

When does my donation begin and end? You may schedule your donation to begin any day you choose, and to recur monthly (or any other frequency you prefer). You may choose to have your monthly donations end after a specific date, specify a total number of payments or dollar amount you wish to make, or choose to make ongoing monthly donations with no end date.

Can I make changes to my donation? Yes, you can update your contact information, payment method and recurrence schedule, or increase, decrease or cancel your donation any time by updating your account on ColoradoGives.org.

Is my donation tax deductible? Yes, for 2026, charitable contributions are deductible if you choose to itemize your taxes.

How will I receive a record of my gift? Initially, you will receive an electronic receipt from Colorado Gives. Next, we will send you a letter acknowledging your participation in Partners in Hope that will include your specialty gift of appreciation. You will also receive a letter in January 2027 that will include your total giving for the calendar year 2026.

Will my employer match my gift? Many employers do! Check with your human resources department to see if your employer has a matching gift program.

Does Jefferson Center share my information? No, we never share your personal information. It will remain secure and confidential.

Who should I contact if I have questions? Please email Erin Reedy at erinre@jcmh.org or give her a call at (720) 965-2576.
