These resources are primarily for teens and pregnant youth.

An emergency shelter offers immediate shelter for one night or longer.

A transitional housing program generally offers housing for longer durations. There are generally wait lists to get into transitional housing programs. Most of these programs require residents to complete an application, interview, and pay monthly rent.

www.foothillsanimalshelter.org

- Open daily, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. for pet relinquishments
- Pet surrender program for Jefferson County residents.
 - This is not temporary care, and your pet will be placed for adoption. You must provide proof of residence.
 - You will be asked to sign a waiver releasing ownership, asked about your pet's behavior, and your pet will undergo a behavioral test to determine the best course of action for your pet's placement.
 - Will accept any in-county animal regardless of the ability to pay the relinquishment fee.
- Foothills Animal Shelter has partnered with Human Service Agencies and our Animal Control Partners to bring services to the citizens of Jefferson County. Simply put, it is the right thing to do to make lives better for pets and people.
 - PorchLight, A Family Justice Center (FJC)
 - FJC provides comprehensive legal, emotional and critical supportive services for survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse, abuse of at-risk individuals, elder abuse, and human trafficking. Located in Lakewood, Colorado, the FJC is a safe, caring environment that provides one-stop services and support. Key local government agencies, law enforcement, community, social and legal service providers, and District Attorney's Offices are located on-site at the FJC to make it easier for victims and survivors to get help. We have an office at the center so we can provide care and resources to the animals belonging to clients of the center.
 - Foothills Animal Shelter provides clients with pet food, animal supplies, vaccinations, and spay/neuter services. We will also provide short-term housing when requested.

- Colorado Safe Parking Lot Initiative (CSP)
 - CSPI is grassroots, all-volunteer nonprofit organization working to create a statewide network of safe, legal parking locations for individuals and families sheltering in vehicles because they are experiencing homelessness. Safe overnight parking is available for individuals experiencing homelessness and living in a passenger vehicle in Jefferson County's two lots, located in Golden and Arvada. Safe lot guests have access to bathroom facilities, housing navigation and other services.
 - Foothills Animal Shelter provides clients with pet food, animal supplies, vaccinations, and spay/neuter services. We will also provide short-term housing when requested.
- Protective Custody Program
 - Jefferson County Animal Control and the cities of Lakewood, Arvada, Wheat Ridge, Golden, Edgewater, Sheridan, and Westminster Animal Control Agencies partner with us to provide Protective Custody Services. Our Animal Control Partners pick up and transport animals to Foothills Animal Shelter when the owners have been evicted, hospitalized, died, become homeless, or are experiencing domestic violence and need to flee an unsafe situation.
 - Foothills Animal Shelter provides ten days of boarding services at no charge to the families in crisis.
